

306. USE OF LIBRARY PUBLIC MEETING SPACES BY OUTSIDE GROUPS

I. Purpose

This policy specifies usage guidelines, restrictions and fees associated with the use of the Library's Meeting Room (located off the front lobby) and the Donald B. Palmer Museum.

II. Policy

The Library's meeting room and museum shall be open to all not for profit groups of a civic, educational, charitable or cultural nature, and not utilized for fund-raising or overtly political purposes. It is to be understood that the needs of the library always take precedence over outside groups when events are being scheduled

The Friends of the Springfield Free Public Library will be granted permission to use either the library's meeting room or the Donald B. Palmer Museum for fundraising purposes, but only with advance approval and agreement having been granted by the Library Director.

Procedures Governing the Public Use of Library Meeting Room and Museum

A. Priority

The meeting room and museum are intended primarily to support Library programs and functions that further the work of the Library. Library sponsored programs and the programs of the Library's affiliated organizations, including The Friends of the Springfield Free Public Library, are given priority in the reservation and use of the meeting room and museum. The meeting room and museum are not available for individuals for private use, social gatherings, political meetings or commercial purposes. Specifically, companies or not for profit organizations that market, promote or sell financial services or products including – but not limited to – insurance, annuities, stocks, bonds, banking or brokerage services will not be permitted to rent library meeting space for these purposes. All organizations and groups applying to use library meeting space must sign a written agreement that indicates the applicant's understanding of the library's policy. Groups or organizations found to be in willful violation of that policy will be barred from future rental of the library's meeting space.

Admissions Fee

No admission fee for the event taking place in a room, no matter how or where collected, may be charged by any group or individual using Library meeting spaces. It is understood that legitimate membership dues do not constitute admission fees. In addition, no fees may be charged to attendees for supplemental materials being used in conjunction with the program taking place in the meeting space. A group found to be violating this rule will be denied future use of the Library meeting spaces. If, at the time this violation is discovered, the person responsible for the group does not agree to return admission fees already paid by attendees, the librarian shall be authorized to call the Springfield Township Police to assist in making sure that any fees paid by attendees have been returned and that the group vacates the Library premises without delay. It is at the discretion of the Library Director whether or not the room rental fee paid by the offending organization will be refunded.

The library also prohibits the taking of personal information of people attending programs on the library premises by any outside group or organization offering a program to the general public. The gathering of personal information in the form of advance registration or sign in ei upon entering the meeting space is prohibited.

Use of additional library space, including the library's front lobby, parking lot, or library grounds as an extension of the activity taking place in the library meeting space is strictly forbidden, including for promotional or publicity purposes

When the Library Meeting Room and Museum are not needed for library-related programs, the rooms may also be made available for official activities of Springfield Township boards, committees and commissions, Springfield public schools, and non-profit or other organizations.
